

Victor Yampolsky

Full-stack Web developer (Laravel & React Expert)

Email: appdev1029@outlook.com

Skype: softdev1029

Summary

I am proud of my experience of working as an independent freelancer

In those years, I have developed many web projects within perfect development structure using Bug tracking including Bugzilla, Git Flow, Trello, JIRA and Complete QA process.

During working as a main member and at last a leader of team for IPTV web services like israel.tv, reelplay, bonTV, I have much experienced web development of React, Redux, Node, Java, Laravel and other modern PHP framework.

Recently I've launched ijobdesk.com.
